CITY OF PHILADELPHIA, et al.,	:
Defendants.	:

ORDER

AND NOW, this 21st day of March 2025, upon consideration of Plaintiff David Sanchez's Motion to Proceed In Forma Pauperis (ECF No. 4), his Prisoner Trust Fund Account Statement (ECF No. 5), and his pro se Complaint (ECF No. 1), it is ORDERED that:

1. Leave to proceed in forma pauperis is GRANTED pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1915.
2. David Sanchez, # 982592, shall pay the full filing fee of $350 in installments, pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1915(b), regardless of the outcome of this case. The Court directs the Warden of the Curran-Fromhold Correctional Facility or other appropriate official to assess an initial filing fee of 20% of the greater of (a) the average monthly deposits to Sanchez's inmate account; or (b) the average monthly balance in Sanchez's inmate account for the six-month period immediately preceding the filing of this case. The Warden or other appropriate official shall calculate, collect, and forward the initial payment assessed pursuant to this Order to the Court with a reference to the docket number for this case. In each succeeding month when the amount in Sanchez's inmate trust fund account exceeds $10.00, the Warden or other appropriate official shall forward payments to the Clerk of Court equaling 20% of the preceding month's income credited to Sanchez's inmate account until the fees are paid. Each payment shall refer to the docket number for this case.

3. The Clerk of Court is DIRECTED to send a copy of this Order to the Warden of the Curran-Fromhold Correctional Facility.
4. The Complaint is DEEMED filed.
5. The Complaint is DISMISSED for failure to state a claim pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1915(e)(2)(B)(ii), as follows:
 - a. Claims against the Curran-Fromhold Correctional Facility are DISMISSED WITH PREJUDICE; and
 - b. Claims against the City of Philadelphia are DISMISSED WITHOUT PREJUDICE to amendment in accordance with paragraph six (6) of this Order.
6. Sanchez may file an amended complaint within thirty (30) days of the date of this Order in the event he can state a plausible claim against an appropriate defendant. Any amended complaint must identify all defendants in the caption of the amended complaint in addition to identifying them in the body of the amended complaint and shall state the basis for Sanchez's claims against each defendant. The amended complaint shall be a complete document that does not rely on the initial Complaint or other papers filed in this case to state a claim. When drafting his amended complaint, Sanchez should be mindful of the Court's reasons for dismissing the claims in his initial Complaint as explained in the Court's Memorandum. Upon the filing of an amended complaint, the Clerk shall not make service until so ORDERED by the Court.
7. The Clerk of Court is DIRECTED to send Sanchez a blank copy of the Court's form complaint for a prisoner filing a civil rights action bearing the above civil action number. Sanchez may use this form to file his amended complaint if he chooses to do so.

8. If Sanchez does not wish to amend his Complaint and instead intends to stand on his Complaint as originally pled, he may file a notice with the Court within thirty (30) days of the date of this Order stating that intent, at which time the Court will issue a final order dismissing the case. Any such notice should be titled “Notice to Stand on Complaint,” and shall include the civil action number for this case. See Weber v. McGrogan, 939 F.3d 232 (3d Cir. 2019) (“If the plaintiff does not desire to amend, he may file an appropriate notice with the district court asserting his intent to stand on the complaint, at which time an order to dismiss the action would be appropriate.” (quoting Borelli v. City of Reading, 532 F.2d 950, 951 n.1 (3d Cir. 1976))); In re Westinghouse Sec. Litig., 90 F.3d 696, 703–04 (3d Cir. 1996) (holding “that the district court did not abuse its discretion when it dismissed with prejudice the otherwise viable claims . . . following plaintiffs’ decision not to replead those claims” when the district court “expressly warned plaintiffs that failure to replead the remaining claims . . . would result in the dismissal of those claims”).

9. If Sanchez fails to file any response to this Order, the Court will conclude that Sanchez intends to stand on his Complaint and will issue a final order dismissing this case.¹ See

Weber, 939 F.3d at 239-40 (explaining that a plaintiff's intent to stand on his complaint may be inferred from inaction after issuance of an order directing him to take action to cure a defective complaint).
